MILITIA WILL MOBILIZE IN CAPITAL TOMORROW

Chicago Organizations Will Detrain at Camp Dunne Wednesday Morning

LOCAL COMPANY HELD

Fifth and Sixth Regiments Are Left Out of Mobilization Plans for Present—May Go Soon

EXPECT 13,000 IN SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 19.—Illinois troop movements begin tomorrow night. Orders were issued tonight by the adjutant general, Frank S. Dickson, for all Chicago organizations to entrain tomorrow night. The guardsmen are expected to arrive at Camp Dunne—the state fair grounds—at dawn Wednesday.

By nightfall Wednesday, according to Gen. Dickson, all Illinois National Guard troops—excepting only the Fifth and Sixth Infantry—will be encamped here, eating garrison rations and living under military discipline patterned after the regular army. Gen. Dickson expects at least 13,000 men.

Mounted organizations—Col. Milton J. Foreman's first cavalry, the two battalions of artillery and the signal company—are expected to report here with their mounts. Following a long distance telephone conversation with Gen. Mills, in charge of the Division of Militia Affairs at Washington, today, Gen. Dickson received a telegram informing him commanding officers whose outfits require horses are expected to know where suitable animals can be obtained. This information is to be reported to Major General Thomas Barry, commanding the department of the lakes, by Gen. Dickson as fast as it is reported to him.

It is expected nearly three thousand animals—mounts and draft horses—will be needed for the 13,000 odd men who will be here by Wednesday. An officer of the Fort Reno Remount Zone of the regular army will be detailed immediately to inspect and purchase animals recommended by guard officers.

Three of the state batteries have options on suitable horses. The officers of the batteries fear other states will get the horses. The Virginia National Guard was reported tonight to be dickering for the animals.

Gen. D. Jack Foster of Chicago, commanding the First brigade will be in command of the mobilization camps here, Gen. Dickson announced tonight. Gen. Dickson, after working continuously since five o'clock Sunday evening without a wink of sleep, said tonight he thought he might retire at midnight.

The only machine guns belonging to the Illinois National Guard are two in the possession of the First Infantry. There should be at least four for every regiment in the state. Gen. Henry Root Hill of Quincy, commanding the second brigade, re-

Telegraph Additional Orders

Additional orders on mobilization were telegraphed to Illinois National Guard organization commanders late today by Adjutant Dickson. "Recruit at home station as rapidly as possible to 1826 men as maximum but do not exceed," were the instructions to commanding officers of Infantry regiments. Col. Foreman of the First Cavalry was instructed to recruit to 1224 men.

Under no circumstances, General Dickson's message said, would organization be authorized to move to Springfield to the mobilization camp until they have at least the minimum strength. This is sixty-five men for the infantry regiments. From reports received here as to recruiting over the state, members of the staff of General Dickson, were positive nearly every organization would report within a few days with the maximum. The first organizations are expected to arrive tomorrow noon. None could say which would be first.

"When recruiting is finished at home stations, the men examined for contagious diseases, property inventories completed and arrangements made for the care of armories and property to be left behind, then the commanding officers are to notify General Dickson who will tell them when to move to Springfield. All property except the old blue uniforms are to be brought here."

The state fair grounds became Camp Dunne this afternoon. The various exhibition buildings were converted as barracks and during the existence of the camp are to be known by their barrack number.

Makes Trip of Inspection

Gov. Dunne made a trip of inspection this afternoon thru Camp Lincoln and Camp Dunne. He was accompanied by Adjutant General Dickson, Col. Richings J. Shand, regular army officers and members of his staff.

In addition Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the State Board of Health and Paul Hansen, chief sanitary engineer of the Board, accompanied the party and inspected the

COLONEL ROOSEVELT MAY SUPPORT HUGHES

U. S. SENATOR LODGE BELIEVES T. R. WILL BACK REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

Significance is Attached to Visit to Sagamore Hill as it Follows Conference in New York With Mr. Hughes and W. R. Crane.

Oyster Bay, N. J., June 19.—After a conference here tonight with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts declared that he believed the former president would support Charles E. Hughes in the forthcoming campaign.

"I found Colonel Roosevelt looking much better than I had expected," said Senator Lodge. "Of course we discussed Mr. Hughes, but very little of Mexico."

"Will the colonel support Mr. Hughes?" he was asked.

"That is my impression," replied Senator Lodge.

Significance was attached to Senator Lodge's visit as it was said he had conferred earlier in the day in New York with Mr. Hughes and W. Murray Crane.

It was the first time the senator has seen Col. Roosevelt since the latter suggested him as a compromise candidate to the Republican and Progressive conventions in Chicago.

Senator Lodge spent more than an hour with the former president after which he left for Washington.

Other visitors to see Col. Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill today included C. P. Connelly and A. J. Hopkins of New Jersey, who are said to represent the "Radical" wing of the Progressive party. E. A. Van Valkenburg, William Flinn and William Draper Lewis of Pennsylvania. Connelly and Hopkins urged Col. Roosevelt to lead a third ticket, but the former president, it was said, refused to commit himself.

WABASH PASSENGER TRAIN CRASHES INTO FREIGHT CARS

East Bound Train Goes Thru Open Switch—One Man Fatally Hurt.

Attica, Ind., June 19.—East-bound Wabash passenger train No. 50, running two hours late, went thru an open switch here tonight and telegraphed the rear end of a freight train which had taken the siding. Frank Woodruff of Lafayette, Ind., riding on the pilot of the engine, was fatally injured. Two trainmen were injured. None of the passengers were hurt.

INCREASED RATES SUSPENDED

Order Affects Small Shipments of Fresh Meat in Peddler Cars

Washington, June 19.—Proposed increased freight rates on fresh meats and packing house products in the Central Freight association territory were suspended by the Interstate Commerce Commission today until October 18, 1916. The proposed rates, which would have become effective July 1, would affect not only shipments in peddler cars in which small consignments of various destinations are charged for at an average weight based on the mileage for the entire distance.

FINE MINERAL FLAVOR OF WELL BRINGS TUSCOLA TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

Seventy-five Persons Suffering From Disease—Several Deaths Reported

Springfield, Ill., June 19.—The fine mineral flavor of the well in the livery barn at Tuscola, Ill., in Douglas county caused most of the population to visit it daily with bottles and buckets in which they carried away water for home consumption.

Seventy five persons are down with typhoid fever in Tuscola at present and the disease has killed several persons. A representative of the state board of health who was ordered to Tuscola to investigate by Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the board located the source of infection as the livery barn well.

"The fine mineral flavor of the well was the result of its proximity to horses," said Dr. Drake today. "This is true of lots of wells near barns."

DECLARES WAR AGAINST U. S.

CARRANZA GOVERNOR OF SINALOA ISSUES ULTIMATUM

Commander of U. S. Gunboat Advises All Americans in Vicinity of Mazatlan to Leave as Soon as Possible.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 19.—An ultimatum amounting practically to a declaration of war against the United States was served Sunday on Commander Arthur G. Kavanaugh of the Gunboat Annapolis by Gen. Flores Carranza governor of the state of Sinaloa, according to a radio-gram sent from the Annapolis at Mazatlan and received here today by Admiral Winslow, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet.

Citing to the low powered radio set of the Annapolis difficulty has been experienced in communicating with the gunboat, but enough facts have come thru to indicate that Gen. Flores has taken a hostile stand against Americans and that it was his refusal to permit Americans to leave Mazatlan that resulted in the clash today between bluejackets of the Annapolis and Mexican soldiers. The exact substance of his ultimatum has not yet been received.

According to the reports received the commander of the Annapolis advised all Americans in the vicinity of Mazatlan to leave as soon as possible. A boat from the war vessel containing Ensign O. W. Kessing, Paymaster Andrew Mowat and a number of bluejackets approached the wharf. Ensign Kessing being under orders from Commander Kavanaugh to arrange with the Mexican authorities to get out all Americans.

Without provocation, it is reported, the Mexicans opened fire on the sailors and Boatswain's Mate L. M. Laughter was seriously wounded. The Americans returned the fire and as far as known six Mexicans were either killed or wounded.

Earlier reports that a drunken Japanese started the trouble are not borne out in reports received here. Ensign Kessing and Paymaster Mowat were taken prisoners and sent

MOBILIZING OF GUARD PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

EACH REGIMENT BEING BROUGHT UP TO FULL STRENGTH

After State Troops Have Been Mustered in as Members of U. S. Army, the Federal Government Will Supervise Movement of the Troops to Mexican Border.

Chicago, June 19.—Work of preparing to mobilize the National Guard in the states included in the central department of the United States army progressed rapidly today. As every regiment is short of its war strength the first work undertaken in the different states is to bring each organization up to its full strength by recruiting. This is in progress in each regiment and will be pushed with all possible speed.

This work will it is believed, take several days and then the regiments will be assembled at the state mobilization camp designated for each state in the order issued today by General Thomas H. Barry, commander of the Central Department of the United States army.

The recruiting of the state militia and the movement of the troops to the different mobilization camps will be under the direction of the state officers. After the militia has assembled in the mobilization camps of the different states the inspector-instructors of the regular army will inspect the troops and administer the oath and formally muster them in as members of the United States army. The federal government will then supervise the movement of the troops to the Mexican border.

Acting on the recommendation made by General Barry the war department today abandoned its plans to hold citizen training camps beginning July 5th at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, because of a lack of army officers to direct the work.

MEXICAN RELATIONS NEAR BREAKING POINT

WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE.

Having captured Czernowiz, capital of Bukowina, the Russians are well on their way from that city and from various points along the river Pruth, driving the Austrians before them toward the Sereth River and the Carpathian Mountain passes. Numerous additional prisoners have been captured by the Russians in their drive and more guns, machine guns, ammunition and foodstuffs have fallen into their hands.

Heavy fighting is still in progress to the north, in Galicia and Volhynia, with the Russians generally on the offensive but with the Austro-Hungarians and the Germans tenaciously battling against their further advance.

In the region south of the Pri-pet marshes to the west of Kolki and along the Stokhod River, where the Kovel-Kovno Railway crosses the stream, the Russians attacks have been partly repulsed by the German General Von Linsingen's forces, according to Berlin, while northwest of Lutsk the battle is going in favor of the Germans.

Petrograd admits the penetration of the Russian lines by the Austrians west of Lutsk, near the town of Lokatchi, but says that Russians retrieved this setback. The announcement of fighting in this region would indicate that the drive in Volhynia has brought the Russians to within twenty miles of the Vladimir-Volynsk, the head of the railway running north thru Kovel.

Along the Galician border near Radziloff the Russians announce the capture of 1800 prisoners. Berlin reports the situation of the Teutonic allies in northern Galicia, near Bucacz, as unchanged.

On the front in France only one infantry action took place Monday. This was between the Avre and the Oise, where the Germans attempted to approach the French lines, but were repulsed with hand grenades. Only bombardments, violent in the region northeast of Verdun and against the British positions near Neuville St. Vaast, but intermittent elsewhere, have taken place along the rest of the line in France and Belgium.

Numerous battles in the air, in which six German machines, among them two Fokkers, were driven down by the British, are recorded in the British official communication. The British themselves lost two aircraft.

A severe battle between the Austrians and Italians is in progress on the Setti Comuni Plateau, to the west of Asiago. On the various other sectors south-east of Trent, numerous Austrian attacks have been repulsed. The Italians report some progress for their troops northeast of Asiago and the capture of 100 Austrians and two machine guns.

Three Italian sailing ships have been sunk. At least one of the vessels, the steamer Leprovodita, is reported to have been sent to the bottom by Austrian submarines.

DEMOCRATS LAY PLANS FOR AN AGGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Plans for an aggressive campaign to begin immediately were laid by Vance McCormick, newly elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee at conferences today with President Wilson, Representative Glass, the new secretary of the committee, Secretary McAdoo, postmaster general Burleson, Secretary Tumulty and several other Democratic leaders.

"From now on I will devote my entire time to pushing the Democratic campaign," said Mr. McCormick tonight. "With a united and harmonious party the prospects for victory in November are very bright. I expect to see the president again in a few days and soon we will have everything in working order."

5,000 AMERICANS IN DANGER

BULLETIN.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 19.—Mexican government troops were reported tonight to be marching towards Del Rio, a border town about 100 miles up the Rio Grande from Eagle Pass, with the announced intention of attacking the Americans there. This information was the most notable bit of evidence indicating the attitude of the defacto government that reached Gen. Funston today. It was brought to the border by a Mexican who said the force was 1500 strong. According to his report the Mexican troops said they intended to attack the Americans tonight or tomorrow night. It was estimated that late today they were about forty miles south of Del Rio.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Upon General Carranza's reception of a stern refusal to heed his demands for recall of American troops from Mexico hinges the question of a Mexican war, in the opinion of President Wilson's close advisers. They were prepared tonight for the possibility of open hostilities after the note, which will be sent forward tomorrow has reached Carranza's hands.

No indications has come that the first chief's attitude of implacable hostility would be shaken by the re-negated declaration of the latest communication that the United States has no aggressive or warlike purpose toward Mexico, but is firmly resolved to protect her borders and end brigandage in the border states.

The reply to Carranza's note demanding recall of Gen. Pershing's expedition was in the hands of the government printer tonight, preparatory to its delivery and publication tomorrow. Secretary Lansing had intended to send it forward today, but at the last moment minor changes and additions to the 6,000 word document necessitated delay. Altho it had been planned to send it by special messenger to Mexico City, the situation has changed and it probably will be handed to Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate.

While the diplomatic steps were in progress today, the nation was stirring thru its width and breadth with the movement of national guardsmen mobilizing to guard the border. At least 100,000 and possibly a far larger number were preparing for active service under President Wilson's call. For the present their mission will be purely one of defense; but should war come they will be ready also for that. No marching orders for the new forces had gone out tonight. They will not be assigned for border duty until mustered into the federal service.

FUNSTON STUDIES BORDER FOR ANY INDICATION OF HOSTILITIES

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 19.—While 100,000 members of the militia were being mobilized today Gen. Funston anxiously studied the border for indication of hostility on part of Carranza's troops. Officers commanding patrols along the Rio Grande from Brownsville to El Paso secured what information they could concerning the movement on the Mexican side of bandits and government troops, but no officials report reached army headquarters here of any incident to make the situation more grave.

Gen. Pershing's reports indicated that Gen. Jacinto Trevino's troops had not yet made any advance move, and army officers believed it improbable that they would unless Trevino received special orders from Mexico City. Gen. Funston's information indicated the adoption of a plan by Mexican troops not to maintain heavy garrisons at border points but to hold the bulk of the border army some miles south of the Rio Grande.

The garrison at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, was strengthened by a mere handful of men, but at Lampazos, between Laredo and Monterey, there were held 5,000 or 6,000 troops. The garrison at Laredo tonight was less than 1,000. At Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, the larger part of the Mexican garrison had moved to points south joining other bodies of troops. Before leaving Piedras Negras the Mexicans dismantled the machine shops, removing large quantities of the material to the interior. The concentration of heavy forces to the south of Juarez also was reported. The only point where concentration at a border town was being effected was at Ojinaga opposite Presidio. There are not more than 500 men stationed there, but the American force at Presidio also is small.

During the nine months ending March 1916, we exported $90,000,000 worth of automobiles and parts—$10,000,000 worth a month. All but a small fraction of this value were consigned to the warring powers. Just think of the effect of this monthly ten million dollars sifting thru the arteries of our trade. This is a sample of the war order prosperity of which the Democrats make political capital.

Justice Hughes Successor

The resignation of Justice Hughes from the supreme bench gives President Wilson the opportunity for the appointment of another member of the court. If fitness were the only qualification to be considered the president would not be long in selecting William Howard Taft for that position. Even Mr. Taft's political enemies will acknowledge his judicial temperament and that his education, experience and training will fit him for position on the bench. But here's a guess that Mr. Taft will not be appointed.

The Rights of Women

The rights and privileges are being accorded to women with such regularity that it will not be long that any avenue will be left closed to them. Recently Columbia university announced that its law school is open to women and thus the last barrier against the admission of women to the university's graduate department was removed. Time and again efforts have been made by women to secure this admission but they have failed. The new order of things is indicative of changing sentiment and of the wider recognition of the rights of women to have educational privileges on a par with those accorded to men. That is one of the privileges which should have been accorded long ago.

The Mexican War of 1846-47

On another page of this issue Mr. Ensley Moore tells about the part Illinois had in the war with Mexico 1846-47. The article is especially timely now that a real crisis in the United States and Mexican affairs exists. Mr. Moore has compiled from the complete records he has facts which show in a very succinct way the action taken by congress, the strength of the United States army and the special part that Illinois had in the conflict. While many of the people today have somewhat definite knowledge of the Rebellion, few there are who have a thorough understanding of what the Mexican war of 1846-47 involved, or are familiar with the names of the leaders. Mr. Moore's article contains a large amount of timely information.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

WHISKERS

I often cry, "Oh, goodness gracious! My whiskers, rank, apocynaceous, grow faster every year; it takes so much of toil and trouble, to 123456123456 now away the doggone stubble—I still must shear and shear." I'm shaving, with the lather foaming, at early morn and in the gloaming, and by the midnight lamp, I'm shaving when I should be earning some coin to keep the fire a-burning, till I have a barber's cramp. The time men waste, their whiskers mowing, if it were spent in useful sowing, would renovate the earth; why, ask the Innocent Bystanders, do faces run to oileders which have no price or worth? It must be great to be a woman, upon whose face, so fair and bloom'ing, alfalfa doesn't grow; she doesn't with her sisters, gather, at barbershops, the taste of lather she doesn't ever know. But man must always be a-strooping; to mow away the new outcroppings, his tools must have an edge; and if his whiskers are neglected, his friends will cry, till he's dejected, "Come from behind the hedge!"

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

June 20, 1788—A committee of Congress presented a report which recommended that in the contemplated survey and sale of lands in Illinois, care be taken to reserve enough land to satisfy the just claims of the French settlers.

Osborne's Prison Policy.

Thomas Mott Osborne, whose record as the superintendent of Sing Sing, has been worthy of commendation despite the effort made by his political enemies to discredit him not long ago summed up his prison policy in two short paragraphs as follows:

"Give every man sent to prison a fair and square chance to make good; and keep on giving him such chances, even if he fails."

"Do not let any prisoner back into society until he has taken advantage of such a chance and given reasonable proof that he can and will make good."

That such a policy can be followed by a prison official is indicative of the progress made in the last few years. There have been some distinct changes and advances in public thought as to the punishment to be given prisoners, or rather the efforts made to reform them. "Give the men a chance" who have fallen between the substance of the reforms. And while there have been a few conspicuous failures, in a great majority of instances the modern humane policy had been justified and has proven its great superiority over the long established methods.

How America is Prepared

Current Events in a recent issue considers the preparedness question in an optimistic way. It pointed out that preparedness includes other important considerations besides armies and navies. Credit and resources of this country are greater than those of the various countries now at war. This is the way Current Events sums up the situation:

"It is true that we have no Army to speak of, and our Navy is now in third or possibly in fourth place. But armies and navies are not the whole of preparedness. There are some ways in which the United States is the best prepared nation in the world. In all this talk about the Army, the ways in which we are splendidly prepared may perhaps be overlooked even by Americans."

"There are three principal ways in which nations prepare for war. They raise armies, they build navies, they accumulate money or credit. The last they often consider the most important. In modern warfare the victory generally goes in the end to that side which has the fullest purse."

"It is here that the United States has them all beaten. We are the richest nation in the world. The controller of the currency has lately pointed out that our national banks alone have resources billions greater than the combined national banks of all the countries now at war. Our preparedness in this direction has increased enormously during the past year. Better than any other nation, better than all combined, we could, if we wished, finance a great war. We hope we shall never have to."

"In other ways we are the best prepared. Some nations may be starved by blockades. We could live a thousand years on our own resources, for we produce more food than we can consume. We have unlimited supplies of fuel and metals. We have one of the greatest populations of the world, the most efficient, the highest in average intelligence. We have the most resourcefulness, and inventive genius. For us to know a need is to find some means of supplying it. The American, beyond all others, is quick to perceive and quick to act, when the time of need comes."

Even Education Costs More

Even education, it is said, has been influenced by the general increase in the cost of living. The Carnegie foundation has found this true in the matter of tuition and charges have increased about one-fifth in the last ten years. These increases are somewhat more notable because of the well known fact that educational facilities in colleges are always sold below the cost price.

To many people that is always the marvelous thing about colleges, that the tuition is kept to the lowest possible figure, even while expenses increase. Frequently there are people who believe that colleges should be self-supporting and that the tuition placed at such a figure that no additional funds will be necessary for college support from that which the students pay in. But unfortunately this is the exceptional and narrow minded view, and the broader policy prevails of trying to bring the higher educational facilities within the reach of those of moderate means. This in brief explains the necessity that exists for the average college and university to at stated periods seek additions to the endowment funds. It may be possible to increase tuition as the foundation report indicates, but such increases are very much less in proportion than the increased cost of operation.

Growth of Teachers' Pension Plan

When the legislature meets again opponents of the teachers' pension system are preparing for a vigorous fight. Advocates of the law feel that their position has been strengthened by the action taken in Indiana, Michigan, Montana, Nevada and New Hampshire, where pension systems have been established. In four other states the efforts made for this legislation have failed, but that does not mean necessarily that the battle of the teachers has been lost. One factor that has influenced a number of the state legislatures in looking with favor upon the teachers' pension plan is the realization that with neighboring states offering such protection to their educators, that something must be done to keep the good teachers from deserting for other fields of work.

Some of the best arguments in favor of the teachers' pension are found in the great importance of the work which teachers do and the fact that the same preparation, the same enthusiasm and industry directed along some other line would bring greater financial results. This applies to that great majority of teachers who are interested in their work and conscientious about it. Unfortunately there are teachers whose work is not of such character as to entitle them to pension protection—in fact, they are not worth the money they are now receiving in the monthly salary.

WHY FAMOUS PASTRY COOKS USE KC BAKING POWDER

The patrons of our first class hotels and restaurants are exacting—they demand the best. Women go where the pastry and cakes are noted for their excellence. Men are attracted by hot bread and biscuits—when fresh and moist and light.

The pastry cook with a reputation uses K C Baking Powder because he knows that results are certain; every time everything is as good as his best.

Then, too, with K C Baking Powder he can mix the various kinds of batter before the rush of the meal begins and bake as needed so that every order goes to the table fresh and hot, yet the last he bakes are just as good as the first.

The reasons behind these reasons is that K C is really a blend of two baking powders. One commences to give off leavening gas as soon as moistened. The other requires both moisture and heat to make it active. Dough or batter will remain in a partially leavened condition for hours, and when put in the oven, will come up as light as if mixed a moment before.

For cookies, pancakes, doughnuts and the like, which cannot all be baked at once, K C is indispensable. For all baking the doubleraise makes doubly certain.

Follow the example of the professional cook and your baking will be equal to his.

MEX CAN RELAT OVS
NEAR BREAKING POINT

Even when mobilization is completed, only such units will be ordered south as Gen. Funston desires to fill the gaps in his 1,800 mile guard line. The remainder will rest on their arms at the state mobilization camps for the present, awaiting the turn of events.

Feeling Against United States.
Official reports from many quarters show that a flame of popular feeling against the United States is being kindled thruout Mexico. Apparently it is being done with the sanction of Gen. Carranza, for the acts in many cases are those of his authorized military or civil agents.

From Juarez to the west coast of Mexico posters have appeared calling the people to arms and asserting that the United States is preparing to hurl its armies into Mexico. Chaotic conditions prevail everywhere, it is said. Clashes such as that between Mexican troops and American blue-jackets at Mazatlan yesterday show that relations are strained to the breaking point. The act of a subordinate commander anywhere may bring on fighting that will result in war.

May Force Matters to an Issue.
So far as officials here are aware, Gen. Carranza is taking no strong measures to curb his soldiers and people. Upon this fact many of them founded their belief that he is determined to force matters to an issue unless the American troops are withdrawn.

Neither state department officials nor members of the diplomatic corps here have been able to satisfy themselves as to Carranza's motives. There are some however, who believe he hopes to ride into popularity by a diplomatic triumph over his powerful neighbor or upon a war wave which might establish his tottering government in popular estimation. Once the war was on and the certain defeat of his armies foreshadowed, these observers say, Gen. Carranza might sue for peace, trusting to the magnanimity of the Washington government to leave him in power.

Many Americans in Danger.
Increasing uneasiness over the plight of some 5,000 American civilians now in Mexico was manifested today in official quarters. Approximately 1,200 of that number are in Mexico City, despite warning after warning thru American consuls and other officials. Another emphatic message advising them to leave Mexico immediately was sent by the State Department thru Special Agent Rodgers a day or two ago.

Officials do not believe the Carranza government would sanction any attack upon American residents or that other foreigners would be involved in any case. A weapon of terrible possibilities is being forged in Mexico however with the attempts to incite the ignorant population to a warlike feeling against the United States. Mobs formed by half starved natives who have been told that all of Mexico's accumulated troubles are traceable to the Americans might well precipitate a situation beyond the control of government.

OPEN HISTORICAL CELEBRATION
President Formally Opens Big Event at Rock Island

Rock Island, Ill., June 19—There was begun here today a week's historical celebration to observe the one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of Fort Armstrong on the island of Rock Island. At noon President Wilson touched a button in the white house formally opening the event. Homecoming for former residents of Rock Island, Davenport and Moline is also being observed. Thousands have already arrived from all parts of the nation.

HUGHES SPENDS BUSY DAY WITH REPUBLICAN LEADERS

No Chairman Chosen at Conference—Candidate Leaves to Attend Class Reunion.

New York, June 19.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for presidency, after a busy day here at his headquarters with Republican leaders, discussing the campaign of the national committee and the selecting of a chairman, left this evening for Providence, R. I., to attend his class reunion at Brown University. He expects to return Thursday.

It was expected that the new chairman would be named at a forty-five minute conference today between Mr. Hughes and the subcommittee of the national committee appointed for that purpose. Later Mr. Hughes personally announced that nothing had been accomplished in that regard as the meeting was only a "preliminary" one.

It was unofficially announced that William R. Willcox, former public service commissioner and intimate friend of Mr. Hughes, and William Loeb, Col. Roosevelt's former secretary had been virtually eliminated from consideration for the chairmanship.

Frank H. Hitchcock, who has been mentioned in connection with the chairmanship, was in conference with the candidates for 15 minutes. Other callers included Charles D. Hilles, the retiring chairman; former Attorney General George W. Wickersham and Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts.

AUTO CRUSHES FARM HAND
Motor Car Overturns on Highway Near Pontiac

Bloomington, Ill., June 19—Denton Campbell, age 22, a farm hand, is dead, and Miss Zella Personette, Miss Nellie Snethen and Herbert Davies are suffering from minor injuries received when the automobile in which they were riding on a concrete highway near Pontiac last night turned turtle.

FORGER PLEADS GUILTY
Former Member British Parliament Asks Mercy of Court

London, June 19—After a preliminary hearing on the charge of forgery at the conclusion of which he was committed for trial, Ignatius T. Lincoln, the former member of parliament today pleaded guilty. He expressed the hope to the court that justice would be tempered with mercy.

sanitary arrangements of the camp. They suggested several changes.

A large quantity of typhoid vaccine and smallpox virus was ordered today by Dr. Drake who will distribute it to medical corps officers to immunize recruits. The older guardsmen have all been inoculated for typhoid fever and most of them for smallpox.

No Repetition of '98 Difficulty
"We are going to arrange for the Springfield fire department to flush out all the buildings to be occupied by men or horses," said Gov. Dunne when he returned from his trip of inspection. "There will be no repetition of the 1898 difficulty when a number of men became ill. Every precaution is being taken. My boy Dick's marriage to Miss Francis Fitzgerald was to have occurred Saturday. He may get married, but I'm thinking he will spend his honeymoon under canvas at Camp Lincoln and far from his bride."

Leaders of the Fort Sheridan citizens' military camp telegraphed Gov. Dunne today offering "the offer of trained men to go either as a provisional regiment or a new national guard regiment." The message bore the signatures of Superior Court Judge Charles A. McDonald of Chicago, Jacob Dickinson, son of the former secretary of war, William C. Riby, William Reed and others. It was understood the men would be advised to enlist in some of the organized national guard regiments.

Colonel Charles G. Davis of the Sixth Infantry, which with the Fifth Infantry was left out of the mobilization plans telegraphed the governor and the War Department saying: "We keenly feel not having been mobilized," and pleading that they be ordered to Springfield with the other organizations. Gov. Dunne telegraphed Secretary of War Baker and urged him to consider the request. At the State Arsenal tonight members of troop D, First Cavalry and company H, Eighth Infantry were sleeping on their arms. Both organizations were recruited nearly to the maximum.

Colored Troops Police Grounds
The first Illinois troops and arms at the mobilization point was Company H, Eighth Infantry (colored). Company H is stationed here and was under orders to proceed to the fair grounds this afternoon to police the grounds. The First Cavalry and the two battalions of field artillery are to be mobilized at Camp Lincoln. All other organizations are to go into camp at the state fair grounds. Civilian employees of the quartermaster's department were busy there this morning getting up tentage, directing the installation of telephones and shower baths, storing supplies of the quartermaster and commissary departments.

At the arsenal orders were being filled for additional equipment for recruits being added to the various organizations. Wagons which have been stored in the basement of the arsenal were being assembled and will soon be ready with the necessary waggons and mules of the army type to meet incoming outfits and take impedimenta to camp.

Will Begin Arriving Today
Asked when the troops would begin arriving General Dickinson said: "Certainly by tomorrow. We want them to get here in good shape rather than in a great hurry." General Dickinson said he was absolutely in the dark as to the length of time the troops would be kept here before being sent to the border. It was generally understood this was a question of the efficiency of the various organizations.

Fifth Regiment 750 Strong
Quincy, Ill., June 19—Brigadier General Henry R. Hill of Quincy and his staff, Colonel Whipp, of Springfield and Major R. H. Abbott of Petersburg, Ill., have been ordered to report at once to Adjutant-General Dickinson at Springfield. No specific instructions were given in the telegram. The Fourth and Eighth regiments, which have been called out are in General Hill's brigade.

The Fifth and Sixth regiments, also part of the brigade commanded by General Hill are the only two regiments in the state not called out. Colonel Frank Wood, commanding officer of the Fifth is here and preliminary orders have been issued to all companies to mobilize at once. The companies in the Fifth regiment, 750 strong, are:

A. Pekin; B. Jacksonville; C. Springfield; D. Bloomington; E. Hillsboro; F. Quincy; G. Peoria; H. Peoria; I. Danville; K. Delavan; L. Decatur; M. Canton; Company J has been mustered out.

The machine gun company of the Fifth, 50 strong and the regimental band of 28 pieces, are in readiness. The machine gun company has no equipment and the uniforms were received only last week.

Great interest was manifested locally Monday when it became known that President Wilson had ordered the mobilization of all state troops in Springfield. No one could understand why the Fifth regiment of which the local company is a member had not been ordered out.

Capt. L. P. Owen of Co. B was in the city last night to attend company drill and explained the situation. Capt. Owen was in the Adjutant General's office Sunday evening when the order came. Col. Shand made out the roster of six regiments and the Fifth was included.

Later Col. Lewis, who is regular army recruiting officer in Springfield, said that the records of the war department at Washington only showed ten companies in the Fifth instead of twelve hence the Third regiment was selected.

However, Capt. Owen says that two new companies one at Springfield and the other at Hillsboro which were mustered in recently had not been taken into account. When

Col. Lewis' attention was called to this he said it was probable that the roster of the new companies had not as yet been received in Washington.

It is the opinion of Capt. Owens, based on what Col. Lewis has said, that the Fifth will receive orders to mobilize in Springfield within 48 hours. Col. Frank Wood of Quincy, in command of the Fifth regiment, is second ranking Colonel and undoubtedly will be shown preference.

Capt. Owen said last night that Co. B. was all in readiness to go and could be moved immediately on receiving orders. It was a big disappointment to the Captain and his men not to be called immediately, as they are so close to the mobilization point they had hoped to be the first company in Springfield.

Roster of Local Company
The roster of Co. B and date of enlistment follows:

ILLINOIS' PART IN THE WAR WITH MEXICO

James K. Polk, of Tennessee was inaugurated president of the United States, March 4, 1845. December 29th of that year Texas was admitted into the Union. Gen. Zachary Taylor, meantime, had been ordered to the border, and into the new territory added to this republic. This brought Taylor in conflict with a Mexican army, in May of 1846, and on receipt of the news President Polk asked Congress to declare war, which it did.

Polk and his active supporters being Democrats, his action was denounced by the Whigs—it being declared the war was to add Slave territory. The Whigs protested against the wording of the declaration, claiming that the President had provoked retaliatory action by ordering the army into Mexico. Abraham Lincoln introduced in the house of representatives what was known as the "Spot Resolutions" calling upon the President to designate the spot of American territory whereon the outrage had been committed. Nevertheless the Whigs voted for the bill, (appropriating $10,000,000) and generally supported the war until its conclusion.

Illinois Democratic.

Illinois was at that time strongly Democratic, altho there were some Whig congressmen, Lincoln being the member from this district. But the Whigs were patriotic, and John J. Harding, who had preceded Lincoln in Congress and Edward D. Baker, who succeeded Lincoln, went into the army as Colonel respectively of the First and Fourth regiments of Illinois Volunteers. And as I have recently narrated in the "Old Jacksonville" sketches, Col. Hardin gave his life for the country.

Time of Service.

The first Illinois served from June, 1846 to June 17, 1847; the Second for almost the same time; the Third from July, 1846 to May 25, 1847; the Fourth from July, 1846 to May 29, 1847; and the Sixth (second for the war) from Aug. 3, 1847 to July 25, 1848. The colonels in order, were Hardin, Wm. H. Bissell, Ferris Foreman, Baker, Edward W. B. Newby and James Collins. There were some independent companies of mounted volunteers, also, from this state. The First, Capt. Adam S. Dunlap, Second, Capt. Wyatt B. Stapp; the Third, Capt. Michael K. Lawler and the Fourth, Capt. Josiah Littell. Among the officers were many who afterwards became distinguished in the civil war and many privates also came to the front in that time. Among these were Benj. M. Prentiss, W. H. L. Wallace, Jas. D. Morgan, Wm. J. Wyatt, James E. Dunlap, M. K. Lawler, Cyrus Hall, James S. Reardon, Wm. B. Fonda, Richard J. Oglesby, Leonard F. Ross, Wm. Kinman, John Alex. Logan and others. These men ranked in the Civil War from major-general down to colonel. And there were probably many others from this state in Mexico who afterwards attained high rank, among these were Stephen S. Hicks, J. N. Hayne, John Morrill, T. Lyle Dickey, John P. Post, N. Niles, A. Engleman, John S. Bradford, D. G. Burr, Wm. R. Morrison, Wm. H. Snyder, Samuel D. Marshall, Julius Raith, John A. Prickett, Jonathan C. Winters, Thomas H. Flynn and Lemuel G. Parke. Judge James Shields was appointed a brigadier-general at once for Mexico, and became a major-general in the Union army—where he whipped "Stone-wall" Jackson. General Shields was rightfully wounded in Mexico and left for dead on the field of Cerro Gordo, being wounded again at Chapaultce. He was afterwards U. S. Senator from Illinois, from Minnesota and from Missouri. He died in the latter state.

Grant in Mexico.

It may scarcely be in order to refer in this connection to General U. S. Grant's service in Mexico. But while not then a citizen of Illinois he took a distinguished part there—helping to qualify him for his subsequent invaluable services, beginning with his appointment as colonel of the 21st Illinois, in 1861.

Strength of Army in Mexico.

The United States had 116,321 men in the Mexican War, of which 73,776 were volunteers, chiefly from the Western and Southern states. Of these Illinois furnished 6,123; and of them 86 were killed, 12 died from wounds, and 160 were reported as wounded. Of course there were deaths from disease as well. Illinois lost the largest number of killed, and had the largest list of wounded. Kentucky coming next with 78 killed and 105 wounded. In addition to their killed, Pennsylvania had 162 wounded, and South Carolina had 216. According to the report of the adjutant general of the United States, the total loss by disease was 5,987. Some men were not accounted for, so it is supposed that our losses, including desertions would be 25,000, 20,000 of whom are supposed to have died.

Col. Baker.

Edward D. Baker, while a native of London, England, became one of the greatest orators and publicists of Illinois and of the Union. Most of his career was passed in this immediate neighborhood—where the magnificent trio—Hardin, Baker and Lincoln—strove for political honors, and attained them. All in turn, giving their lives for their country.

The 6th Regiment.

The Sixth was ordered to Mexico under Col. James Collins. "At New Orleans it was divided, one battalion, in command of the colonel, being sent to Vera Cruz, and the other under Lt. Col. Hicks, being ordered to Tampico. Excepting some skirmishes with guerrillas, neither of these battalions were engaged in the field, but their losses thru sickness and deaths were severe. The regiment was mustered out July 25, 1848. It and the Fifth being the last in service.

The Numbering Stands.

The patriotic men who endured the death, wounds and privations of the conflict in the land of the Montezumas were not suffered to be forgotten when the greater war came on, for in that the first regiment was numbered the 7th.

Trophies.

There are at last three trophies of the Mexican campaign still preserved in the capitol at Springfield, which are worth looking at in the Flag room there.

One is Santa Anna's cork leg, which was found in a carriage, from which he had escaped, by Illinois troops. Another is a brass helmet, with a flowing horse tail, and a brass breast and back plate. The third is a small cannon.

How Our Men Got There.

The Illinois troops were probably all carried by steamboat to New Orleans. Hardin's men went from here to Alton. From New Orleans, probably, all of them were transported by ship to the mouth of the Rio Grande, or to Vera Cruz or Tampico. Those landing near Brownsville made long and harassing marches by land to the city of Mexico, or to points this side of it. Those who joined Scott's part of the army instead of Taylor's supposedly marched from Vera Cruz to the capital. But it was a hard experience in any case and to people raised on the prairies, the sea voyage in small ships, on the Gulf of Mexico was one of the most uncomfortable and distressing. But war is always an educator in many respects, and the brave men from Illinois saw and did things of which they could well tell during the longer or shorter period of their subsequent lives.

"Victor Galbraith."

A pathetic incident of the war was commemorated by Henry W. Longfellow in his poem on Victor Galbraith, who was a bugler in a cavalry company, going out from the Galena neighborhood.

The unfortunate young man was shot for some breach of discipline, probably without deserving to lose his life.

Longfellow wrote in part: "Under the walls of Monterey At day break the bugles began to play,

Victor Galbraith!

In the mist of the morning damp and grey,

These were the words, they seemed to say, "Come forth to thy death" Victor Galbraith."

Forth he came, with a martial tread; Firm was his step, erect his head; Victor Galbraith, He who so well the bugle played, Could not mistake the words it said, "Come forth to thy death, Victor Galbraith!"

He looked at earth, he looked at the sky, He looked at the files of musketry,

And he said, with a steady voice and eye, "Take good aim; I am ready to die!"

Thus challenges death Victor Galbraith.

Under the walls of Monterey By night a bugle is heard to play, Victor Galbraith! Thru the mist of the valley damp and grey,

The sentinels hear the sound and say, That is the wraith Of Victor Galbraith."

Stephen A. Douglas.

When the question of Mexico came into American politics, in the houses of congress, Stephen A. Douglas, was a member of the national house of representatives. When the war ended, and in the discussions growing out of it, Stephen A. Douglas was a Senator of the United States, from Illinois. Any one who knows of his virile and able Americanism need not be told that, as representative and as senator, Mr. Douglas was clearly in evidence, and he took issue as he saw fit, not only with Daniel Webster and others from the North, but also with John C. Calhoun and others from the South. At first Douglas was suggested as a brigadier general, but he wisely withdrew his name for that position. Later on he supported President Polk, and after the war, when very important points were to be considered, the young senator from Illinois had his say.

TWO JAILED FOR BURGLARY AT HARNEY'S HARNESS STORE

Stole Trunk and Number of Leather Handbags—At Railway Station When Apprehended.

Herbert Lynch of this city and Jefferson Scott of Peoria, both colored, are in the county jail under bond in the sum of $1,000 each charged with burglarizing George Harney's leather goods establishment early Sunday morning.

Frank Coleman who is thought by the police to have been the ringleader in the burglary escaped from the police after several shots had been fired at him. Coleman is an ex-convict from Joliet. He is wanted at the penitentiary there for violating his parole and also for breaking jail in Peoria.

The three men gained entrance to the Harney store by prying open a wooden shutter on the rear window and raising the sash. After gaining an entrance they took a trunk and packed in it seven traveling bags. The articles taken were valued at $100.

When the burglary was reported to the police Chief Davis immediately started officers at work on the case. Thruout Sunday no clue was obtained. Sunday night Capt. Sharp received a tip that the trunk was to be shipped out on the early Alton train due here at 2 a. m., to Bloomington. He went to the station with officers and found the tip was straight.

The trunk was taken to the station on the baggage wagon. It was accompanied by Lynch, Scott and Coleman. Lynch and Scott were captured but Coleman escaped. Lynch and Scott were taken to the police station and locked up. Monday afternoon they waived examination before Justice Dyer and were sent to jail in default of bond in the sum of $1,000 each.

The trunk was taken the police believe from the residence of a man named Guthrie on Lorton street. It is said that Scott, who came here to attend the funeral of Sanford Sutton had been stopping there while in the city.

Chief Davis has notified the authorities at Joliet and Peoria and expects to have a description of Coleman within a few days. It is probable he will be apprehended and sent back to Joliet.

THRESHING WHEAT.

Judge W. E. Thomson, who has just returned from a brief visit in St. Louis, says that the season is considerably further advanced in southern Illinois than it is here. Near Venice he saw a number of men harvesting wheat and a number of other fields along the line are ready for the binder.

PROPERTY OWNERS WANT PAVEMENT FOR SOUTH CLAY AVENUE

Improvement Ordinances for South Clay Avenue, Prairie Street and West State Street All Under Way.

Subsequent to the meeting of the city council Monday the board of local improvements held a short session when the South Clay avenue petition for a pavement was considered and it was determined to extend the proposed pavement to the city limits. The petitioners specified several possible materials and Mayor Rodgers suggested that tar via be specified as that is the cheapest material, but this can be changed at the public hearing if desired.

An adjournment was taken until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when a resolution was passed providing for a tarvia pavement on Prairie street from Lafayette avenue to Edgemoor street. A hearing will be had at 9 o'clock Friday, June 30. On the same date at 10 o'clock there will be another hearing on the West State street pavement. The Prairie street tarvia pavement, according to the estimate of Engineer Henderson, will cost $25,153. This cost is divided as follows: 12,584 yards of tarvia, $18,246.80; 4,183 yards of excavating, $1,047.75; 7,200 feet of limestone curbing, $3,960; 3 catch basins $90; 10 inlets, $145; sewer pipe, $84; limestone header, $165; court costs, etc., $1,415.85.

The ordinance for the West State street paving differs only in minor details from the ordinance previously passed and provides for an asphalt pavement with concrete curb and gutters.

SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, has certified to the County Court of Morgan County, its certificate of completion and acceptance of the improvement of South Main street, consisting of a street pavement from the center line of Morton Avenue South, to the City Limits as contemplated by the proceedings therefor had in said Court, together with the cost thereof. That the final hearing on application for approval of said Report will be had at the Court House in said City of Jacksonville on Friday, the 7th day of July, 1916, at 10 o'clock A. A DELEGATION OF WOMEN were intensely interested when they recently visited the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., and saw the extreme cleanliness and purity which prevail in the preparation and storing of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as well as of her other medicines. An hour is required to go thru so large an establishment. One thing which struck the visitors was the great number of files containing the letters of women who told how much the famous Compound had done for them. Only a part of them are published, and no letter is ever published without the writer's permission.—adv.

COUNCIL LAYS MORE PLANS FOR STREET PAVING WORK

Petition Presented to City Council—
Roland Stice to Get Monthly Payment under Workman's Compensation Act—Street Flusher to Take Place of Oiling Apparatus.

A petition from residents of South Clay avenue was presented at the city council session Monday morning asking that a pavement be laid there from Morton to Superior avenue. Subsequently a session of the board of local improvements was held and it was decided to lay a pavement from Morton avenue to Michigan. Prior to this work it will be necessary to put in a water main from Superior to Michigan avenue and bids are to be secured at once for furnishing the pipe.

Mr. Widmayer reported that Roland Stice, city employee who had his arm crushed at the pumping station several months ago, would like a "lump" settlement with the city for his claim, which according to law is about $1,300. As there is no appropriation to pay such sum from, Mr. Stice was directed to pay Mr. Stice $30 a month for a period of 200 weeks. This is the provision made by law.

Mr. Cox reported that a campaign for the destruction of weeds will be begun on the city streets and that there are a number of vacant lots where weeds should be cut but the city is having difficulty in getting into communication with the owners. Mayor Rodgers reported that Mr. Cocking had been to interview him with reference to collection for oiling the square and adjacent streets. Mr. Cox said that the understanding with Mr. Cocking was that the oiling was to stop as soon as the street flusher was received, and as this had been received the first of the month, that was sufficient notice to Mr. Cocking that the oiling was to stop. The plan is to have the city use the flusher in the business district and to clean the streets in this manner instead of having them oiled, with the expectation that the business houses will pay the city for the service as they have been doing with Mr. Cocking in the past. There was some talk about the need there might be for another employee for gutter work in connection with the flusher and Mr. Widmayer suggested that the purpose of the whole plan was to keep the business district cleaner and in more sanitary condition and not to make any money for the city. It was the understanding that Mr. Vasconcellos' department will attend to the collections for the flushing and an account will be kept of the water consumed and proper allowance made to the department for the work.

Mr. Martin said that he had the plan under discussion with the county commissioners and anti-horse thief association of purchasing a number of bloodhounds to be kept here and used by the authorities as needed. The commissioner said he thought such a plan would enable the city to put an end to some of the petty thievery that has been going on.

Those who signed the petition for paving on South Clay avenue were William McNamara, E. C. Sibley, J. P. Moxon, D. H. Slater, George Belzer, Milton Ruble, C. P. Ross, William Raedner and the trustees of the First Baptist church. On motion of Mr. Vasconcellos the clerk was instructed to advertise for water pipe to be laid on South Clay avenue and South Mauvaster street.

Mrs. E. B. Bland and son Walton left yesterday for an extended visit in the south. They will first go to Eureka Springs, Ark., and from there will go to Norfolk, Va. They will be gone for about two weeks.

HOG CHOLERA AGAIN

THIS YEAR
Hog cholera has broken out again in the southwest part of Elm Grove township. This is the only outbreak that has been reported to the Farm Bureau this year. The prospect is that this may spread considerably before next winter. The great difficulty with these outbreaks is in carelessness on the part of the men on whose places they start. If a man's hogs get cholera and he vaccinates them promptly and cleans up and disinfects his place promptly it is likely to stop the outbreak right there, especially this early in the season. Last year W. F. Naffziger of Deer Creek and Asa H. Danforth of Washington stopped outbreaks where they started on their farms in this way. It is a little more trouble for a man to do this than to allow the disease to run its course in his own herd and spread unrestricted to his neighbors, but certainly it is the only fair thing to one's neighbors to try and stamp out the disease. It pays to do this, anyhow, because more hogs will be saved from the infected herd if this good care is given.

Tazewell county can never be kept free from cholera unless farmers generally will co-operate to this extent, that they will each one do all in their power to keep hog cholera from spreading. When a man gets hog cholera on his farm, it is his duty to the county as well as to himself to stamp it out, and vaccination and thorough disinfection will do it.

Colt Show Plans.
Colt show committees are at work on plans for a series of colt shows this fall in various towns in the county, winding up the series with the show at Tremont. At the Tremont show, Archie Robinson will offer a silver cup for the best Percheron stallion or filly foal. The shows that are planned at present are Delavan, Hopedale, Armstrong, Morton, Washington and Tremont. It is time enough yet for anyone to get his colt in shape to show. There is a good crop of colts in the county this year and we should have some fine shows this fall. The classification that have been worked up so far provides a place to show every kind of colt.

New Year Started.
The new Farm Bureau year which began June 1 has splendid prospects ahead. Treasurer Joseph Morris reports that the members are rapidly paying in their $10 fees for this year and quite a number of letters express appreciation of the hard work that has been done on the part of the officers and county agent to make the work successful and useful in every way. The plan of making farm visits to a large extent by townships is starting out well, although the rainy weather of last week broke into the schedule. A lot of demonstrations are going this season on various farms. Each member is kept posted on the most important things which these are showing from time to time. These demonstrations are convincing proof as to just what can be done with various improved farm methods. One interesting thing about this Farm Bureau work is that the members who are already among the most successful in the communities, are taking the lead in the interest shown in these demonstrations and in adapting them to their own farm operations. In checking up what has been done so far this year one can see that the Farm Bureau work is just acquiring a good start and that the progress will be much faster from now on. There has been more done by the members in almost every line of improvement during the first six months of 1916 than in all of 1915.

Livestock Market.

The cattle market is showing interesting developments these days and in their summary for the past week Alexander, Ward and Conover quote a number of sales of fat cattle at $11.40. Medium cattle, however, sold at from 10 to 15c lower than the high point of the week before and there has been quite a lowering of butcher stock because of the increased receipts of Texas cattle. John T. Alexander of this firm comments upon the fact that cattle now being received are lighter than is usual at this time of year, and says that under normal conditions a great many of these cattle would have been held thirty or sixty days longer. He is strongly of the opinion that during July, August and September there will be only a moderate supply of cattle and that high prices will prevail. He is also very optimistic for high prices on hogs and believes that July will see a 11c price.

Milks Three Times Daily.
A dairyman living in New Jersey has found an improvement over the milking method which Charles S.

Black, of this county, adopted some time ago. Mr. Black followed the plan of milking early in the morning and again shortly after noon instead of at night, but the New Jersey man milks his cows three times a day and has thus greatly increased the milk production. Thirty-five cows submitted to the test, during three weeks and milking was done at 4 a. m., noon and 8 p. m. The amount of food consumed was considerably greater than under the two milkings plan but this cost was more than offset by the increased amount of milk available for selling purposes.

Charles Burmeister has gone to Galesburg for a stay of a few days.

REV. LUKE MANDEVILLE CELEBRATED SOLENN HIGH MASS SUNDAY

Impressive Ceremonial Sunday at Church of Our Savior—Sermon by Rev. Fr. Formaz.

Rev. Luke Mandeville, who was recently ordained, celebrated solenn high mass at the Church of Our Savior Sunday morning for the first time. Because of the special interest in the service the church was filled to overflowing. The deacon of the mass was Father D. O'Brien, formerly of Jacksonville and now stationed at Greenfield. The sub-deacon was Rev. P. J. Beary of the Church of Immaculate Conception at Springfield. The master of ceremonies was Rev. Thomas O'Hara and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Formaz. Father Formaz took as his text Matthew 28:18-20. "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

In closing a forceful, earnest appeal to his audience to meet the demands for Christian living, Father Formaz paid a word of personal tribute to the newly ordained priest. He said that Rev. Luke Mandeville was the first graduate of Roult college to enter the priesthood. While a student in the college here the young man had manifested his studious habits, his faithfulness and his earnest desire to live rightly and to be of service to mankind. After graduating from Roult college, he spent four years in the theological department of St. Bernard's seminary at Rochester, N. Y., and finished a course there a few weeks ago. As no class was to be ordained in Rochester at that time, the candidate was sent to St. Louis, where he was ordained with others by Archbishop Glennon in the new Kenrick seminary June 13. The candidate was born in Lincoln, Neb., in 1894 and is the son of John and Julia Mandeville and came to Morgan county fourteen years ago and is affiliated with the Lincoln diocese. After a brief vacation here he will be stationed for a time at the cathedral in Lincoln and then will probably be assigned to work elsewhere.

Following the church service a large company of relatives and intimate friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Julia Mandeville, 827 West College avenue, mother of the new priest, where an elaborate dinner was served. In the afternoon from 3 to 5 a reception was held, when a great many friends of the family from Jacksonville and surrounding territory called to extend congratulations and express their good wishes. Father Mandeville received a great many tokens from friends and relatives expressive of their good will.

A GREAT HORSE TRAINER

Stephen Holderness was in the city yesterday representing the great carpet house of Stephen Sanford's Sons of Amsterdam, New York. Mr. Holderness says the elder Sanford who died a few years since was one of the most extensive carpet manufacturers in the United States and the sons now carry on the business. One eccentricity of the old man was to use a quill pen which he did up to the day of his death and latterly he did much singing by faith and not by sight.

While carpet making was his vocation, his avocation was fine horses and he had a string unexcelled in the country. He used to say he wanted it understood that fine horses could be raised in New York as well as in Kentucky and he proved it. A short time since his surviving son John won the derby at Louisville, Ken., his black gelding, George Smith, coming in a nose ahead of the next best. In this race he had to compete with the Whitneys and other producers of great horses. The purse was $15,000, and so rejoiced was the owner that he handed the jockey who had ridden the horse in the race ten nice, new one thousand dollar bills as a present in addition to the boy's salary.

A GREAT AFFLICTION.

For some time Mrs. Edward Markille of the region of Winchester has been suffering with blood poisoning in one leg and yesterday Dr. Norris deemed it wise to have amputation in order to save her life and she was brought to Our Savior's hospital yesterday for that purpose.

RAIN PREVENTED GAME

Rain prevented the game between Jacksonville and Morton scheduled for Sunday afternoon at Nichols park. The Morton team arrived in the city on the C. P. & St. L. Both teams went to the park but it rained continuously causing the postponement. Great interest had been aroused by the game and the crowd, had the day been fair would undoubtedly have been a record breaker. Morton will be booked for a return date soon.

CUT FOOT BADLY

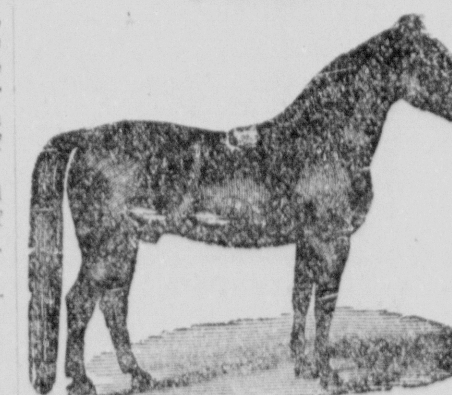

Edna Howe the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Howe while playing in the yard of her home wearing only some light sandals on her feet stepped on a piece of broken glass and her foot was cut rather badly. It was necessary to take several stitches in the wound and it will probably be several days before the little girl can be on the foot again.

YEAR'S WORK IS CLOSED AT ROUTT COLLEGE

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES WERE HELD MONDAY NIGHT.

Father Formaz Awarded Diplomas to the Class—"Catholic Factors in Modern Progress" Furnished General Theme for Orations.

The Routt College commencement exercises were held last evening in the College auditorium before a large and attentive audience composed of friends of the college. Rev. Fr. Formaz presided during the program. Miss Ethel Sweeney was the only graduate from the college, she receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree. Diplomas from the high school were given to Joseph Duffner Becker, Isadore Edward Froelich, George Eustace Hobbs, John Clement Leary, Harold James Woulfe, Thomas Michael Walsh. A certificate was given to Hyacinth Matthew Roach.

Following the invocation by Father Formaz the College chorus sang, in a very acceptable way, "Unfold Ye Portals," by Gounod.

The Making of America.
The general theme taken up by the speakers was "Catholic Factors in Modern Progress." The first phase of this subject was taken up by George Eustace Hobbs. He delivered an oration on "Catholic Factors in the Making of America." In this speech Mr. Hobbs said, "Queen Isabella who financed Columbus' voyage was a Catholic, and he himself was a Catholic and before setting out on his voyage with his crew they received sacrament at the hands of Father Juan Perez."

"Passing on to the colonization period we find the Catholics converted and amalgamated the Indians. In the revolutionary period what name signed to the Declaration of Independence is greater than that of Charles Carroll of Carrollton? What names will be longer remembered than Generals Moylan and Lafayette? Who first flew an American flag from his ship, but a catholic, Jack Barry."

"When the civil war broke out a Catholic was the first man to answer President Lincoln's call. With the four years of fighting came the need for caring for the wounded. From the data obtainable it seems that the greater part of this work was carried on by four orders, The Sisters of Mercy, Sisters of Charity, Sisters of St. Joseph and the Sisters of the Holy Cross."

"The same principle which moved the Catholicism in the revolutionary and civil wars and moved these men are instilled in the heart of every American Catholic and should need arise, they pray it may not. Catholics will be among the first to give up their lives in defense of their country."

Catholic Aid to Education.
Thomas M. Walsh then delivered an oration on "Catholic Factors in American Education." He first dwelt upon the Philippines and showed what a great work the Friars had done there, how all the attempts to give the colonies issued against them were in vain and how these Friars lifted the Philippines to prosperity.

Referring to education in the United States Mr. Walsh in his remarks said, "The foundation of parochial schools dates back as far as the Maryland colonies, over one hundred and fifty years ago, and from that time they have been steadily increasing. They teach that sound civilization can only result from sound morality, which in turn depends upon conscience, training and character building and so thus sound civilization requires a religious education."

"The college also has its own functions. It has to equip men for actual life whether in the professions or in other pursuits. For this purpose the catholic university at Washington was built. The result of this is something unique in the history of education, a body of citizens bearing thru taxation their share of the cost of schools controlled by the state, and thru love of religion, the entire expense of a system which is doing more than any other for the best interests of the country."

"Twenty of thirty years from now the school children of today will direct the affairs of state, will hold offices of trust, will be at the head of our country's industries, will make and administer the country's laws and if they become merely 'learned men,' sharp and shrewd men and not also honest pure consciences and God fearing men what will become of our great country?"

Some Famous Scientific Workers.
Miss Browne played Rigaudon by Raff with excellent effect, preceding Miss Ethel Sweeney who considered the subject of "Modern Progress and Mediaeval Catholicity." In the course of her address she told of how, what had always been called the dark ages had really produced some great men, how modern progress had been affected by the discoveries of the monks in the monasteries. She told of how Kircher, who three centuries ago disclosed some of our most modern ideas, such as the distribution of disease germs by various insects. "To him alone," said Miss Sweeney, "are we indebted for the preservation of many lives. We meet in the nineteenth century Abbot Mendel, whose works the accomplished quietly in a monastery garden, are known today thruout America, Europe and Japan. Again we meet Guy Chaulic the father of modern surgery, who showed by his work the advancement made in surgery during this supposedly dark time. There is scarcely a feature in modern surgery which is not completely anticipated in Chaulic's works.

"Mediaeval Catholicity instilled true principles of loyalty in the people. To be convinced that the Catholic church has ever been a friend to the poor we need but recall those days when true hospitality, together with clothing was given for three days to any pilgrim knocking at the monastery door. Make no mistake, altruism is no discovery of our day. It has been the sacred practice of the church, always the world over, but in those days it was not called altruism, it was called christian charity. The popes thru their temporal power secured political liberty for the masses."

"Thruout this period the well known Anglican historian Farrar says: 'The church was a mighty witness for light in an age of darkness, order in an age of lawlessness and personal holiness in an age of licentious rage.' Nobly then do the popes merit the title which the historian Voigt gives them, 'Tutors of European civilization.'"

"The great historian Lecky tells us: 'The Catholic church laid the foundation of modern civilization. She is the most admirable of all organizations. There were formed beneath her influence a vast network of organizations, political, municipal and social, which supplied large portion of material for every modern structure.'"

After these orations the presentation of diplomas was in charge of Father Formaz. He made a short address suitable to the occasion emphasizing the value of educational work and urging those who had been awarded diplomas not to cease their pursuit of knowledge. Then the college chorus sang "The Heavens are declaring" by Beethoven.

The exercises thruout were of a very impressive character and the orations all indicated careful study and preparation.

LOYAL TO HER COLLEGE.

A Delaware woman has given evidence of her consistent interest in education and loyalty to the institution in which she started her college course. In 1885 while she was a student at a Delaware college, enrollment was limited to men and she then entered teaching work and held various positions for thirty years. Two years ago a woman's college was established and Miss Churchman promptly enrolled as a student and recently was graduated with special honors. During all those years there were, of course, many colleges for women which she could have entered but for reasons of her own she preferred to complete the course at the college she entered so long ago.

FAST BURLINGTON TRAIN TO PASS THRU CITY IS STORY

When Great River Bridge Is Completed at Metropolis New Route to Gulf Will Be Opened

The story has gained credence that with the completion of the great bridge which the Burlington is building at Metropolis, that a fast mail train originating in Chicago and destined for New Orleans, will pass thru Jacksonville. Ever since the Burlington acquired the old J. & St. L. line, particularly because of the rich coal fields that the line touched, the management has been pushing southward extensions. For a year past work has been in progress on the bridge which will cross the Ohio river and touch Paducah, Ky. Because the Ohio quite frequently overflows at this point, several miles of embankment and trestle work have been necessary in addition to the actual bridge span, and it will be a considerable time yet before the work is completed.

Great Bridge Not Yet Complete

Estimates as to the time required for the completion of the great bridge vary greatly and the same thing applies to the stories about the proposed train service. The most sanguine people believe that the Chicago-New Orleans train will be a reality early in 1917, while other railroad prophets of more conservative type declare that at least a year and a half will elapse before the bridge at Metropolis is ready for traffic. It does seem a certainty, however, that when the bridge is completed, that passenger traffic will be routed via the new line, and a Chicago-New Orleans express and mail service is considered entirely probable, for it is said the proposed Burlington routing will lessen the distance between Chicago and the gulf by a considerable number of miles. One good thing about the proposition is that Jacksonville is on the carrier division thru which any passenger service established must pass, and thus there are good reasons for the belief that at no very distant day the Burlington will be running passenger trains Chicago to New Orleans and return thru this city.

An Example of Efficiency

The Burlington stands out with a few other systems of this country as an example of splendid intelligent management. The property and equipment are constantly kept in excellent condition, and the business details of the road shows excellent earnings and in other times there is never a balance on the wrong side of the ledger.

On this division of the road the freight service is practically all with which the people are familiar and that service, is a marvel of rapidity. This is especially true as related to St. Louis business and the movement of coal from the southern fields. No doubt the Burlington's passenger traffic is maintained to the same high order of excellence, and it will be a good day for Jacksonville when the thru passenger business on this division becomes an actuality.

Miss Emma Capps and Mrs. Martha Capps Oliver have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Springfield and Chicago, Ill., and Delaware, O. Black and in Springfield they were guests in the old President McCabe home, spending there the commencement season at Ohio Wesleyan university. Miss Josephine C. McCabe, daughter of John J. McCabe and Mrs. Edith Capps McCabe, finished her course of study at the university this year, winning one of the honors in a class of one hundred and seventy-one. President Welch, recently elected a bishop of the M. E. church, presided for the last time. He will probably be sent to Korea in the near future. Charles Warren Fairbanks, who is an alumnus of the university, was one of the speakers. He gave an excellent talk and was given an enthusiastic ovation.

ODD FELLOWS HELD THEIR MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Large Company Gathered at State Street Church to Honor Memory of Departed Members—Address Made by Grand Treasurer Berry.

The rain Sunday afternoon did not interfere with a large number of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs gathering for the memorial service at State Street church. The principal address was delivered by M. P. Berry, grand treasurer of the domain of Illinois. Carl H. Weber presided and after the doxology had been sung and the invocation pronounced, he read the memorial proclamation. The I. O. O. F. ode was sung and then Dr. Morey read passages from the scripture and later offered a prayer. A double quartet consisting of Misses Grace McCarty, Fern Haigh, Helen Obermeyer and Edith Carlson, Asa L. Robinson, Will Day, A. C. Metcalf and M. L. Robinson, sang "Sweet is Thy Mercy," and Miss Cora Graham's solo was Handel's "O Lord, Correct Me." The audience joined in the singing of a hymn and then the speaker was introduced by the chairman. References were made to the fact that in the affiliated I. O. O. F. lodges in Jacksonville twenty persons have died during the year and they form but a part of the great list of 500,000 who have passed away since the order was founded. Many of those members who have gone on before did much for the order and their loyalty and enthusiasm gave much of the strength to the order that it has today. So the memorial service for Sunday was planned to pay honor to the memory of those who had gone on before, not only the past year but in other years as well.

The tenets of Odd Fellowship are to visit the sick, to relieve the distressed, to bury the dead, to protect the widow and to educate the orphan, and Mr. Berry said as these principles were carried out so will Odd Fellowship grow and flourish. The records of the organization prove that the ideals of the founders have been in large measure realized, and Odd Fellowship has brought comfort to many sorrowing hearts and has directed thousands into the paths of righteous living. The records of the order presented by Mr. Berry showed that in the history of Odd Fellowship the immense sum of $161,000,000 has been distributed in relief work; forty-five orphan homes are maintained and the number of children cared for there runs into the thousands. In this state the home for the aged, established at a comparatively recent date in Mattoon, is doing an excellent work. And this is only one branch thru which Odd Fellowship carries out its pledges which purpose to bring nearer that day in which the world shall recognize the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

The double quartet sang another number and the impressive services closed with the benediction.

CLEVELAND'S DAUGHTER WILL TEACH THE BLIND.

The suffering in Europe caused by the war has brought to the work of relief people from all walks of life—men and women, young and old. One of the most recent to make known her intention of active work in Europe is Miss Esther Cleveland, daughter of Grover Cleveland. Miss Cleveland is preparing to go to France to take up the work of teaching some of the unfortunate men who have been blinded by the war. The penurious gains and the terrible expenses which form a part of the European war methods have brought blindness to hundreds and thousands. Now the task must be met of teaching these men to use raised letters. There are instances, too, of those who have lost their hearing and these must be taught the sign language. Miss Cleveland's studies to prepare herself for the work are about finished and as soon as she goes abroad she is to enter the service in an American hospital at Neuilly. Miss Cleveland was born at the White House during her father's second term and is said to be the only child of a president ever born there.
